

***MEDIA ALERT***

BCNY Partners with At The Table Academy & the Asian Pacific Islander American Public Affairs to Help High School and College Students Develop Interview Skills

Flushing, NY—The Boys' Club of New York is partnering with At The Table (ATT) Academy and the Asian Pacific Islander American Public Affairs to provide an interview workshop for high school and college students. This workshop is the second in a series (<https://www.bcnyc.org/congresswoman-grace-meng-bcnyc-announce-new-leadership-initiative/>), which provides life skills training for high school and undergraduate students. The Academy prides itself on providing students with the opportunity to gain essential skills that they may not gain in a typical classroom environment. Congresswoman Grace Meng, Honorary Chair of ATT, is known for her solid reputation of increasing the resources available for students to help prepare them for adult life in this competitive job market.

"I am very excited that At the Table is continuing to present workshops to prepare our next generation of leaders," shared Sandra Ung, ATT's Executive Director. "Our first workshop was very successful and focused on how to create a resume and now we want to focus on the next step, the interviewing process, which is necessary after a great resume!"

What: Interview Workshop for High School and College Students (Open to the public)
When: Wednesday, October 30, 2019, 5:30pm-7:00pm
Where: BCNY's Abbe Clubhouse (133-01 41st Road, Flushing, NY 11355)
Media Contact: Lamar Metcalf, BCNY's Manager of Communications & Marketing lamar.metcalf@bcnyc.org or 347.505.5208

At the workshop, students will receive interview training and participate in small mock interview sessions. The workshop will be led by Ling Xu, Flushing Bank Vice President, Queens Area Manager. In addition, panelists Kevin Benson (Harvard University graduate) and Ray Eason (Oxford University graduate) will participate in the event.

"The Boys' Club of New York (BCNY) is thrilled to continue its community-based partnership with At The Table Academy and Congresswoman Grace Meng for the advancement of our youth in Queens and throughout New York City," said Ron Britt, BCNY's Abbe Clubhouse Director (Flushing). "This interview-skills workshop fills a relevant and core need for our members, particularly our young men who will face crucial transition points in their high school, college, and young-adult professional lives. We are grateful to Representative Meng and our corporate partners for making this critical investment in the community and helping to maximize potential and human capital in the next generation."

About the Boys' Club of New York

Throughout its 143-year history of youth development, the Boys' Club of New York (BCNY) has successfully implemented a multidisciplinary approach to afterschool programming that helps prepares boys and young men to become leaders of their own lives. We accomplish this by providing high-quality music and arts programs, mentoring opportunities, social and recreational activities, academic enrichment, and athletics. Our open door policy and $5 membership fee ensure any boy age 7-21 can join.

# #